

How can you possibly call yourselves guardians of consumer protection when you listen only to big business to weaken the no call list regulations. Get smart and leave the Wisconsin No Call List Regulations alone. I can now enjoy my dinner without telemarketers interrupting. Thanks